All information re Sustainable Finance Disclosures will be adhered to by the Product Producers and their brochures and documents will outline their disclosures.

Remuneration

Your first meeting with us is provided at no cost. This meeting allows us to understand your financial needs and for you to assess whether our services are a suitable match for you. At Hennelly Financial Services Ltd, we are paid in two ways:

- Commission from product providers when we arrange products for you.
- Fees, if you prefer to pay directly for our advice and services, you can opt to pay the entire amount as a fee. We will inform you in advance and confirm the applicable fee. If it is not feasible to specify an exact amount, we will explain the method by which the fee will be calculated.

In some cases, our remuneration may be a combination of both commission and fees, depending on the nature of the service provided. If we receive commission from a product provider, this may be offset against the fee which we may charge you. Sometimes, product providers also pay us a recurring commission. This helps cover the cost of ongoing advice and service, and you will receive an annual update on your investment business. For more complex cases, urgent matters, or where specialist skills are required, an additional fee may apply. We will always give you an estimate in advance before any extra charges arise. If by investing in sustainable investment products there are any differences in charges etc., we will advise you of this in advance of advising you on your investment. Please see Appendix 1 for our fees and commission charges.
